

LCUUC Staff Covenant

To maintain healthy relationships within the staff team and the congregation, we will promote open, direct, and honest communication, and we will work towards resolution. For handling complaints, conflicts, or concerns, we will speak directly with the person(s) involved whenever possible.
5.

We will express and maintain clear personal and professional boundaries while respecting the boundaries of others and honoring one another’s whole lives. In order to support the overall functioning of the congregation, we will refrain from participating in activities that are a conflict of interest.
6.

In our deliberations we will expect and welcome differences of opinion, and we will be mindful of power dynamics in our process. Once we have come to a decision, however, we will all support it.
